

Systems Thinking Approach® to Strategic Planning™

Haines Centre Australia

The Systems Thinking Approach® to Strategic Planning™ facilitated consultations are tailored specifically for micro, small/medium and large organisations within the not-for-profit sectors.

Dr Lewis Atkinson is an expert facilitator who mentors staff in the art of strategic management. Through structured meetings Lewis will assist staff to identify critical issues, develop strategies and generate an implementation process to achieve sustainable organisational goals.

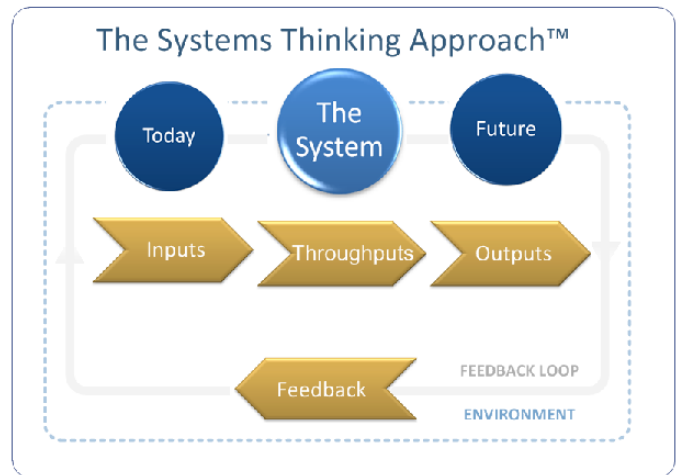

Planning, People, Leadership, Change

You will learn how to:

- Integrate strategic thinking, planning, and change within your organisation, department or teams.
- Develop, implement and sustain a customised and integrated yearly strategic management system and cycle for your organisation.
- Lead strategic change to execute your strategic plan and achieve desired results.

Who will benefit

- Small business owners
- Not-for-profit boards
- School councils and P&F
- Local Government
- Government agencies
- Major functional areas
- Major program areas
- Strategic projects
- Workgroups and departments

We transfer our knowledge, materials and methodology to your staff for continuous improvement and independent expertise. The consultations accommodate up to 10 staff and are structured over a series of meetings:

Micro: 2 days of meetings, 2-4 weeks

Small/Medium: 5 days of meetings, 2-3 months

Large: 10 days of meetings, 3-6 months

Save 10% if paid upfront

COST for facilitated consultations including GST:

$2748 paid up front

$3298 paid in two installments

Tailored to your needs:

Industry and sector

Organisation size

Time available

Location

Click here to register www.hainescentreaustralia.com.au or contact lewis@hainescentreaustralia.com.au; 0419 240 979